Terms and Conditions

1. The IC3 Institute Inc., also referred to as the “Company”, is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt nonprofit organization in the U.S.
2. The Company reserves the right, without liability, in its sole discretion, to accept or refuse any support opportunities application. The term “event” used in the agreement includes (but not limited to) the Company’s programs, sessions, and concert. References to the “event” mean the event as it will or may be held in physical or virtual format.
3. Support Opportunities sponsor will pay all fees, charges, and expenses for its application when due and on demand. If the Company seeks any legal recourse or remedy to collect any amount due from the Applicant, all charges related to the collection of any unpaid amount (including Company’s legal fees) will be the responsibility of the Applicant.
4. The Company makes no guarantee about participation in or the success of the Support Opportunities. All risk and responsibility in connection with participation in either of the categories is the Sponsor’s risk and responsibility. The Sponsor shall ensure that it and its representatives conduct themselves in a professional manner. If required by law or standard industry practice, the Sponsor will purchase and maintain its own liability insurance in connection with its participation in the Support Opportunities.
5. The laws of the state of New Jersey shall govern the validity and interpretation of these Terms and Conditions (these “Terms”) without regard to conflicts of law principles. Sponsors will be invoiced for payment, unless paid by credit card, upon the Company’s receipt of the Sponsorship Opportunities Agreement. Agreements are not subject to cancellation by the sponsor. The invoice will reflect the full cost of the sponsorship fee, which is NON-REFUNDABLE and which will be due within 15 days of the application date or 60 days prior to the initiation of the engagement/event, whichever is earlier. Please be advised that neither expiration of payment due dates nor failure to pay the invoice will terminate the obligation to pay the sponsorship fee pledged to the Company irrespective of participation in the event or any other circumstances.

6. If any event is changed or rescheduled for any reason and notice is not feasible, the Company will use reasonable commercial efforts, to the extent not prevented or hindered by Force Majeure or health or safety concerns, to schedule an alternative event. "Force Majeure" means any cause beyond the reasonable control of Company, including failure of technical facilities; technological problems, error, interruption or failure; Act of God; natural disaster; accident; fire; flood; inclement weather; labor dispute; riot or civil commotion; act of public enemy; war; military action; public health crisis; disease; pandemic; virus; epidemic; national security; governmental, court, regulatory or administrative act or order; law, regulation or rule; act or threat of terrorism; national day of mourning; strikes; civil unrest; airport or other transportation closings or delays; travel warnings or advisories; emergency announcement or news bulletin; inability to obtain supplies; delays in transportation; or embargo.
7. The Company reserves the right, without liability, in its sole discretion, to make changes or postponements to the program/event including format, daily schedule, dates, cities, and technology used.
  - 7.1.1. If the Sponsor is planning on attending the event, along with the names of each proposed attendee, Sponsor must submit the name of one person to be its representative in connect with installation, operation, and removal of any exhibit. Such representative shall be authorized to enter into such service contracts as may be necessary, and for which the Sponsor shall be responsible. The Sponsor shall assume all risk and responsibility for any person being in attendance affiliated with the Sponsor, throughout all exposition periods, and the representative shall be responsible for keeping the exhibit neat, manned, and orderly at all times.
  - 7.1.2. All attendees shall abide by all rules, regulations, policies, procedures and protocols whether imposed by the Company or legal authorities, and each person must agree to, and pass, any and all health screenings. If any person who is in attendance becomes ill, can no longer participate in a proper manner, or does not comply with health or safety protocols, such person may be removed from the event without any liability to Company.
8. The Company shall not be responsible for, and the Sponsor will indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Company and its affiliates, and their successors and assigns and each of their directors, officers, members, managers, employees and agents from, any and all costs (including, but not limited to, legal fees), claims, demands, suits and liability for any damage, loss, harm or injury to the institution and any person or property of the Sponsor or any of its affiliates or invitees and each of their directors, officers, members, managers, employees and agents ("Sponsor Parties") and for any other matters arising out of any Sponsor Party's (a) attendance or participation in the Support Opportunities Package or any event related there to and (b) breach of this agreement, except for the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Company's but any and all liability of any IC3 Institute Inc. Party shall be limited to the amount of the member contribution paid by the Sponsor to the Company for the then current term. In addition, no IC3 Institute Inc. Party shall, in any circumstance, be liable or obligated for exemplary, special, punitive, or consequential damages, including, but not limited to, any loss or damage of lost profits, revenues, or business opportunities, from whatever source derived.

9. The Company reserves the right, without liability, in its sole discretion to deny entry to or to remove any person, including any sponsor, delegate, participant, or third party from the event.
10. The Company will not provide any compensation, refund or credit, nor be liable for any fees, charges, or expenses paid or owed by Applicant to any third party, including for travel, accommodations, transportation, Internet service providers, or Web based meeting provider (e.g. Facetime, Zoom etc.).
11. The Company will market the event to endeavor to drive participation but makes no guarantee about the number of participants at the event or the recognition of the event.
12. The Organizer does not endorse the programs, products, or services of the participating individuals, institutions, organizations, and sponsors.
13. Sponsor will not share, publish, post or disseminate any event participant's data or use any such data for mass mailings or any other purpose other than as permitted by the participant for the Sponsor's internal purposes. Prior permission to use any such data will be required from the Company.
14. In order to maintain a professional atmosphere, prevent copyright infringement, and maintain a code of ethics, the Company does not permit the videotaping, recording, or photography of any event proceedings, including sessions, discussions, keynote addresses, exhibits, or workshops without prior express written permission from the Company.
15. The Company may choose to record with or without video, or photograph, the event or portions of the event. Applicant waives the right to notice of any such recording or photography and waives the right to inspect or approve versions of such images or recordings used for publication or the written copy that may be used in connection with the images or the recordings. The Company is permitted, although not obligated, to include Sponsor's name as a credit in connection with such images or recordings.
16. The Sponsor, without compensation or further notice authorizes the Company to use any content including, without limitation, the Sponsor's name, biographical information, images, and related materials and content (including name and social media handle) on such party's website and social media platforms and in any other form and medium (including, without limitation, print, text and email) for the purposes of promoting the Support Opportunities, upcoming events, and the activities of the Company and this is a perpetual non-exclusive royalty free license for use of such content. The institution represents and warrants that its content and materials are its own and do not infringe of any intellectual property or other rights of any third party.
17. These terms and the Support Opportunities Package represent the entire agreement between the Company and the Sponsor relating to the subject matter of this agreement. No provision of this agreement may be altered unless mutually agreed upon in writing signed by both parties and no provision may be waived unless such waiver is contained in writing signed by the party to be charged with the waiver. If there is any inconsistency between this agreement and any other document, this agreement shall control.
